The Good Samaritan, Vincent Van Gogh, 1890

"A Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.. He poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged him...took him to an inn, and cared for him."

—Luke 10:25-37

BEWARE OF EMAIL SCAM!

Internet fraudsters have been scamming parishioners by sending emails which appear to come from parish priests asking for help by purchasing gift cards and sending the pin number on the back of the card!

Neither the pastor nor any member of the staff will ever make this request.

If you receive this type of email immediately contact the local police as well as the Federal Trade Commission at ftccomplaintassistant.gov and click the link to chat with a technical support specialist.

Stewardship Reflection

Jesus said to him, 'Go and do likewise.' (Luke 10:37)

This was Jesus' command at the end of the Good Samaritan story. Did you know that the Samaritans and Jews despised each other. The moral of the story is to love our neighbor. That means loving someone you may not know or someone that looks different than you or someone that you don't like. All without expecting anything in return.

Join the Biblical School this fall, beginning September 12 @ 6:30 PM, and follow Pope Benedict XVI's advice: "I urge you to become familiar with the Bible, and to have it at hand, so that it can be your compass pointing out the road to follow." Information sessions start next month. Pick up a brochure at one of the parish entrances to learn more!
